S.W.O.C. Group Plans to Build Clubhouse Here

Having purchased a 60-foot lot on Border ave. off Cravens ave. the Torrance Labor Temple, a non-profit organization of S. W. O. C. members of Milky Williams Lodge No. 1414, intends to build a clubhouse on the site as soon as financing is arranged. It was revealed today by Donald Wald, who with Eugene S. Held and Neil McConlogue, is a director of the group.

Articles of incorporation were filed on behalf of the Labor Temple this week with Secretary of State Paul Peek. The purposes of the corporation are "to furnish club rooms and meeting places for the amusement and entertainment of the corporation; to provide, for the benefit of the members, such equipment and apparatus, including pool, billiard and snooker tables, bowling alleys, handball courts and such other equipment as is necessary for all other indoor or outdoor sports; and to hold and arrange matches and competitions of all kinds, and offer and grant prizes, awards and distinctions."

Red Cross Wants Sewing Workers

The Red Cross sewing rooms, donated by Sam Levy in his building at 1526 Cravens, have been equipped and are open daily from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. under direction of Mrs. L. G. Barkdull. All women are invited to assist with the work and may devote an hour or so on their entire day.

The Standard First Aid Class meets each Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the city court room, with Mrs. Elsa Stone as instructor. For information call Mrs. J. O. Bishop, 472-W. The advanced class meets at the same hour and place each Tuesday evening.

'Mass-Examination' of Draftees Begins at Co. Health Center

"Mass examination" of men registered in the draft began here Tuesday night with eight Torrance physicians and dentists checking 35 men thru physical tests at the County Health Center. Present to launch this large-scale examination system, which will be followed every Tuesday evening henceforth, were officials of the California State Selective Service administration headed by Major Morrill, chief of the induction station in Los Angeles. The "mass examination" begins at 7 o'clock each Tuesday night. It was announced by Clerk Carl Marsteller.

FERN AVE. P. T. A. ENDS TERM TUESDAY

Fern Avenue P. T. A. held its final meeting of the term Tuesday evening with Mrs. J. J. Millard presiding for the last time. A community sing was led by Miss Laura Thomas with the glee clubs and audience participating. Mrs. L. F. Waldson read an inspirational poem dedicated to the retiring officers and Mrs. A. C. Turner, auditor, gave her report. The resolutions committee, Mrs. John Garner, chairman, reported and Hirosho Hamano, Torrance high school student and a graduate of Fern Avenue school, read his prize-winning editorial, "Freedom of the Press."

Mrs. J. E. Bender, president of 15th Street school P. T. A., was a guest and introduced members of her organization. Coffee and cake were served by the Fourth grade room mothers, Mrs. William Jolley and Mrs. Richard Nidwell, assisted by Mrs. Roy Myers, hospitality chairman. Officers installed for the 1941-42 term by Mrs. V. E. Hopkins of San Pedro, auditor for the 10th district, were: Mrs. John Garner, president; Mrs. J. J. Millard, Mrs. Lillian H. Billups and Mrs. G. D. Moshier, vice-presidents; Mrs. Michael Strasser, secretary; Mrs. A. C. Steele, financial secretary; Mrs. D. A. Murphy, treasurer; Mrs. A. C. Turner, auditor, and Mrs. W. G. Hamneck, historian.

PATIO PARTY PLEASES CLUB
New officers of the National Business and Professional Women were hostesses Monday night at a jolly party in the patio of the home of Miss Marge Huber, 1444 Post ave. Broiled steaks with Lyonnaise potatoes were the main course of the dinner, prepared by Miss Huber and Mrs. Edna Smith, assisted by Miss Mary Nady, Mrs. Rose Williams and Mrs. Lottie Sowers.

Auctioning of "white elephants" was both amusing and profitable to the club treasury. Later the club gathered in the living room where Miss Huber showed motion pictures in color of Yosemite which she took while she and Mrs. Smith as delegates were attending the convention of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs last month.
